HIGHLIGHTS:

1984 - 1986
Marriott Vacation Club®—originally known as Marriott Ownership Resorts, Inc., a division of Marriott® International—is established in 1984. Marriott’s Monarch becomes the company’s first resort, one of eight today on Hilton Head Island, South Carolina.

In 1986, Marriott’s Sabal Palms opens at the Orlando World Center Marriott Resort & Convention Center, introducing the concept of co-locating a timeshare resort with a full-service Marriott hotel.

The company begins a partnership with Interval International, providing more vacation choices and destination options to Owners.

1996 - 1997
Marriott Vacation Club expands into Europe with the 1996 opening of Marriott’s Marbella Beach Club in Costa del Sol, Spain.

In 1997, a national treasure and 150-year-old Boston icon is transformed into Marriott’s Custom House—the first branded metropolitan property of its kind. The property's city-centric feel would later provide inspiration for Marriott Vacation Club Pulse.

2001 - 2008
Marriott Vacation Club expands its operations in 2001 with the opening of Marriott’s Phuket Beach Club in Thailand.

In 2005, the company opens Marriott’s Grande Chateau near the famous Las Vegas Strip and in 2006 opens an office in Singapore and launches a points-based program tailored to the Asian traveler.

Marriott’s Lakeshore Reserve in Orlando, Florida is Marriott Vacation Club’s first property to share a resort location with The Ritz-Carlton and JW Marriott hotel brands. The resort opens in 2008.

2010 - 2012
In 2010, Marriott Vacation Club launches its current points-based Marriott Vacation Club Destinations Program in North America and the Caribbean.

A year later, Marriott International spins off its timeshare business to position it for further growth. The new publicly held company, Marriott Vacations Worldwide Corporation, becomes the world’s first pure-play public timeshare company.

In 2012, the flexible and points-based Marriott Vacation Club Destinations Program is extended to Owners of the company’s European resorts.
The company announces Marriott Vacation Club Pulse, an extension to the Marriott Vacation Club brand. Each of the five properties embrace the city-centric spirit and culture of their urban destinations, creating an authentic sense of place while delivering easy access to local interests, attractions and transportation. Marriott Vacation Club Pulse can be experienced in Boston, Washington, D.C., San Diego, Miami's South Beach and New York City.

The opening of Marriott Vacation Club at Surfers Paradise in Gold Coast, Australia marks the company’s first timeshare in Australia. The property is located in the iconic Surfers Paradise Marriott Resort & Spa.

2017
Marriott Vacation Club opens its first resort on the island of Hawaii. Marriott’s Waikoloa Ocean Club is a vacation destination as unique as the Big Island itself.

2018
Marriott Vacation Club opens its newest resort, Marriott’s Bali Nusa Dua Gardens in Bali, Indonesia. The all-new resort continues the company's growth strategy of adding new locations to its collection of properties and resorts in Asia and Australia.
