ORLANDO, Fla. – (May 21, 2019) – Marriott Vacation Club, a global leader in vacation ownership, brings its unique style of upscale, metropolitan vacations to the famed “City by the Bay” with the opening of its newest location, Marriott Vacation Club Pulse, San Francisco.

The citycentric brand extension of Marriott Vacation Club, Marriott Vacation Club Pulse is a collection of properties that offer experiences tailored for travelers seeking to explore their favorite cities, immersing themselves in the local scene and culture. Rather than the traditional multi-room villas found at Marriott Vacation Club’s resort locations that offer expansive grounds and numerous on-site activities, the appeal of Marriott Vacation Club Pulse properties is their in-the-heart-of-it-all locations. The urban settings put the sought-after sights, sounds and tastes of the city at Owners’ and guests’ fingertips.

Marriott Vacation Club Pulse properties are found in six unique and vibrant destinations: New York City, San Diego, South Beach, Washington, D.C., Boston and now, San Francisco. Every property is close to cultural attractions, local points of interest, celebrated dining and easily accessed transportation.

With its truly unique appeal, San Francisco is an ideal fit for the newest Marriott Vacation Club Pulse property and a highly desirable addition to the portfolio for Owners and guests. The resort—formerly the Pier 2620 Hotel—is being renovated, with the design team using the city’s rich and historic surroundings to inspire the property’s stylish look, feel and design.

The property’s guestrooms feature a carefully curated San Francisco-themed décor, offering several views and include comforts and conveniences like Wi-Fi and mini-refrigerators. Other amenities include a fitness center with cardio and weight training equipment, and an inviting outdoor courtyard with a gather-round fire pit that’s perfect for those cool San Francisco evenings. An all-new, state-of-the-art sales gallery also has been constructed, allowing Owners to plan their next dream vacation.
